Experiments Made With Food.

A certain professional woman in New York, connected with one of the large institutions there, has had a curious experience with an experiment in using a certain kind of food. It seems that in October last, she had a serious illness and was at the point of death, the brain and body in the last stages of exhaustion. Her remarkable experience with the food was brought to the attention of the makers by some of her friends, and in reply to a letter, she wrote as follows:

Thave no objection to the public knowing of the wenderful transformation my system has undergone by the use of strape-Nuts since November, 1888. I began using the food when convaiesting and when in an exceedingly low condition. And used a small quantity and became so fascinated with the flavor that I gradually discontinued nearly all other food, including tea and coffee.

l'esterday's Scores.

To-Day's National League Schedule.

With two out in the ninth linning, score 4 to I in St. Louis's favor, Captain McGraw threw McCuire's grounder wild to first base. Then Pitcher Cy Young made a bad Snish, and Brooklyn won out in a butting rally, to 4. It was the best game played in St. Louis this season. Brooklyn played supertor bull and deserved to win. Both tean " alike. The fielding of Both fean 50 alike. The fielding of both Thomas apparently struck out but Search both thinks was good, but Brooklyn sprang a second would not allow it, and a createn triple struck new play, and with it won. With mod but would not allow into with men an the bases. Server this play Brooklyn twice swept the bases of men when no one was out, and when I ooked as if runs would come in avalanchiar orreits noross the plate.

This is the play: In the fourth inning with Quinn on second, Rebinson on first, no one out and Young at but, it was plainly regular, routine bareball for Young to bunt Routine baseball does not always win. Against the ordinary team—Philadelphia, 'hicago, any of them but Brooklyn-the play to put Quinn third and Rubinson or second would have been accepted without a murmur and as a foregone conclusion, if Young could put the hall on fair ground. This is the way Brooklyn broke that sure Ming up: Just before the pitcher was ready the shortstep ran over and bluffed to over second base. Of course Quinn had e run back, fearing a throw. Dahlen renained on the hag, and as Quinn was run ting back to second McGinnity pitched Quinn was going toward second, not toward third, as he should. Young made a perfect bunt. Every one expected to see him thrown bunt, Every one expected to see him thrown cut at first and Quinn and Robinson move up. But McGinnity let Cy go and, throw-ing to third, caught Quinn a mile. Every-body in the stands wanted Quinn killed for not being on third an hour before. They cid not see that the skillful play, made while he was running the other way, com-nelled bun to run five yearly more than he pelled him to run fifty yards more than he would have had to go had be been allowed to take the regular start and get going before the hell was bit. It was the greatest play seen in five years. If not in twenty-five, yet not ten people in the 8,00) present knew it was made or saw its hearty. In the sixth inning the play was made again with better results on exactly the again with better results on exactly the same combination—Quinn, Robinson and Young. This time Quinn got a fair start. not nearly so good as he would had fuhlen not been covering, but as good as he could and hit a pop to McGionity, Quinn tried to scramble back. Dahlen was on the sack for the throw and the dauble play came off.

rt to cover the base, Quinn would have eaten him to the bag.

The play won the game for Brooklyn. It

Had Dahlen been obliged to run in from is the greatest thing that has been sprung in recent years. Manager Hanton gives Pitcher Dunn the credit of inventing it.

Patal Ninth Inning. Patal Ninth Inning.

This it will be seen that while the work of Louis team was sharp and elever. Brooklyn went it one better. Both pitchers did well to the ninth, where Young foll down. McGinnity was wild, bit three hatters and gave six bases on balls. Young made one wild pitch and gave three bases. Some state of the second children in the special and other with the cattle and hope runes, the whole hand, the whole hand, the second children in the second children in the second children in the special children in the sp made one wild pitch and gave three bases on balls, two of them in the fatal inith. In this inning Young opened by giving Dahlen a base. Luck favored Brooklyn in the end. After Quinn had made two great plays on Sheckard and Demont, McGure hit between third and short. McGraw covered a mile of ground and ate the grounder up. He tossed it to McGann and the throw took. Dan off the sack made a swing to the film, but fell over him and the ball solt away. Burkett scored on the film atold cheem. In the eighth Robinson hit a liner to left, which was beaded for the gate, but Brookiva is no licky that it hit the half-back which supports the foul that. This half-linch or from in five acres of ground was a similificing, but small things count comediance. Medicas went Robinson home with a sharp single ever research.

Burkett's fielding is wortly of special mention. He made a great earch of Reeler's less hit in the eighth it was a sharp per right ever Wallace, a hit, anywhere, any time. Burkett came in with a yell and a rush He picken the ball off his shoestringe. A wonderful play Jesse also made a swell earch of McGuire's long drive in the seventh, when though boded lift for St. Louis. Then in the second he held Demont's terrible time drive to a single when it was good for three sacks. Burkett also get two hits and seems to have at last started to play hall.

He let Jees get too close to the bag, then made a swing to tue blin, but fell over him and the ball set away. Burkett scored on Dement stole three bases vesterday. Mo-Graw and Robinson heat him out of the fourth by a mair. It was good to see the slick, easy way in which they supped him. Robins met tossed the bull down and Me-Graw held it on him as he also in.

Burkett's two-burker was a high fly, which fell between Kweler and Demont a case of mix-up. Where was the captain?

If a captain can call the man that is to take a fly ball, why did not McGraw name burket for Keelet's fly in the seconth? McGraw had no more bleathat Jesse would get it thus he did of flying. After Burkett made the play Johnnie took off his cap and made a profound obetsance to him, it was a wonderful earth. The ball fild not go ten feet over Wallace's head, a little aren fly forkett raced in and got it on the base parth, hack of Bobby, flarkett seemed to drop from the clouds. No one saw him until he had the ball in his hands.

Heistrick skipped out sweetly on a couply yesterday went back like Griffin or Flake would. Emmett also walloped it hard, but could not get more than one safe. Thrice in succession did be line one to Jennings.

Robleson's arm is time, but his aim to et good. He gave Wallace a few to hrows yesterday. Kilson Hanlon's pinch batter, his 292 hast reason. Some of Telecu's pinch hitters hit 409 in averages, but 509 in action.

The only bit of bod bull St. Louis played was in the much, when Wallace reloi to life through right and elevated a fly to Scelar. Still he must have had his orders, and as long as he was trying to make a play it was all right. Had he slammed it through and sent Burkett to third he would be no as are. It does not always pay to play according to the treek.

Joe Kelly will make a third bugman. He has the arm, the sixle of throw and the nerve. He is elever on the grounder, too. Demont, a detice with Chicago, is an acc with Brooklyn. And there is nothing in management.

Joe Quinn did great work yesterlay. He made two splendid plays in the minth in-ning. Shockard tore a leg off McGarm with a featful drive. Dan blockard it romewhat. Quinn was behind him, nailed the ball, shouted to McGann to take the bar, which he did, and they made the play, though Sheckard is a very first man. Then Jaseph placed a high fly of Demont's out of the sun and wird in fine style.

In no game that the Philibes have played this season have they made less than twelve hits. This is a most remarkable record. It is undoubtedly the greatest hitting agreeation that has even been gathered. If the Phillies' pinchers do their share of the work this season it is hard to see the team that will beat them out of the pennant. It really all depends upon the pitchers, for the team is bound to hit, and hitting with good pitching will win games. Commercial Tribune.

President Hart of Chicago and Stanley Robison of St. Louis are strong advocates.

Whenever he fulls to make good or makes an error he gives it special mention—Exchange.

Mike Tlerman, the ex-Glant, is a member of the Berby team of the Compecticut League. As a ball player, he seems to have great lesting powers. Perhaps even this last year.

John Anderson, the ex-Bracklyn player is doing well for Counts Mack's Milwaukes turn. In a recent game he made three hits and scored four runs in five times at hat, but then "Andy" niways was a sing-

Andrew Preedman of the New York Club was never inclined to treat visiting clubs with due respect, but from all accounts he is drawing the line Uniter this apring than ever before. It is an unter impossibility, it seems, for a visiting player to break into the Pola grounds this season unless he the Pola Frounts this season unless he wears a uniform or pays his admission. All the League clubs adopted a rule this year bot to recognize the possess of visiting managers, but making them apply for passes at the club headquarters.

It was Jerry Denny who brought out Russe, he found him working in a formure factory in Indianarohie in 1889 and had him sent to Burilington, in, to give him experi-ence and allow him to get control of the ball. In 1889 the New York management re-called Amos back to that city, and his abi-lity reflects much credit on the man who brought him out. Derty Correspondence in Ansonia Sentinel.

The talk about a dearth of pitchers makes one tired. Brooklyn had no trouble in second all. H.O.A.E. W.M.A. A.E.H.O.A.E. A.E.H.O.A.E. A.E.H.O.A.E. The talk about a gracth of pitchers makes one tired, Stookiyn had no trouble in securing pleaty men. Even when Hughen and McJames left it had some to release. Pittsburg, Cinciunatt, St. Louis and Chicago are well stocked with the article. There were such men as Meckin, Killen and Weyhlar fairly begging for jobs, Weyhlar declared that he could pitch with his left hand for much clubs as Brooklyn and Hoston. Brooklyn secured him and then released him, Weyhing, at his worst, is considerably better than some of these shoesteing pitchers.

"If Buck Ewing can import some of his pitching fore to Winnie Mercet, then look to the Polo grounds for the resurrection of another twirier who was shunted into the has been' roster," says Joe Campbell. "I doubt very much whether there was any aliment in that cumning pitching apparatus of Mercer's which conqueted with so many bussnen in "6, Winnie's best year in the major League. You see, Mercer was a special favorite of Earl Wagner's a sort of privileged character on the team. His volcanic neckties and winning ways, enight Lark and never was prima donna so pampered as our Winnie by the management. Mercer was a sly dog, and winked over Earl's shoulder to the players whenever Earl would slap a prima donina so pamper d as our winnie by the management. Mercer was a siy dog, and winked over Earl's shoulder to the players whenever Earl would stap a paternal put on Winnie's spinal column and tell him what a foxy game he pliched that day. Like all players on the look-our for No. 1. Winnie appreciated the snap, and, realizing that the lewer games he pliched the longer he would hat, he balled Earl Into the belief that he could play the in or outfield; that his arm wann't as strong as it used to be, and that he would like to practice for another position. And so it reached that pass where Winnie's pliching days were few and far between, and when he wasn't practicing for another position to the belief that Winnie could play third base, and boomed his favorite as the coming rival of Jimmy Collins. He was gincere, and pretty soon had certain managers louing the foxy plicher as a third hagman. Even so keen a judge as Johnnie McGraw was fooled. Mercer's trial at third last season never appealed to a practical ball player. While Winnie fielled his placher's position above the average he fell all over hunts at third, and covered about enough ground to bary an ant in. It didn't take Buck leving long to put himself next to the fact that Winnie couldn't play third any more than he could play Hamlet. I will bet 5 to 1 that Metcer's arm is as full of pliching tricks as in '86 when he platched star ball for Serapry Joves. The shew ball he used that season was so effective that he overplayers in eladivering his slow one he failed to deceive the hitter, who knew by players. In delivering his slow on failed to deceive the hitter, who knet the round-arm, deliberate motion wher slow one was coming. Tim Keefe slow one was coming. Tim Keefe used practically the same motion for his slow, aggregating teaser that be amplied in delievering his speedy one. Ewing, who was keefe's old battery confederate in the Giants' naimy days, is familiar with the knack of Keefe's pitching, and if he will give Winnie some points in theh Keefe style of delivery, he will have one of the less pitchers in the League in Morer. Perhaps that was Ruck's object in returning Mercer to the pitcher's slab."
